Peter L. Rines Scholarship

MFSI Fire Instructor & Fire Officer Programs

In Service Since 1948

Peter L. Rines began a long career in the Maine Fire Service as a call fire fighter in the Town of Wiscasset Fire Department. In the early 1990's he became the town's first and only full time firefighter. Through the years, he served the community as Fire Captain, Director of the Wiscasset Ambulance Service and Interim Fire Chief.

After earning his associate degree in Fire Science Technology in 1998, Peter began a career in training of Maine's fire fighters as a State Fire Instructor, a Training Program Manager and as Certification and Curriculum Manager with the Maine Fire Service Institute. Through Peter's hard work and perseverance certification programs were developed for Fire Fighters, Fire Instructors and Fire Officers and eventually Pro Board certification and national reciprocity of Maine's training programs.
